| Course Title |  |  Art History British Culture in the Twentieth Century: from Bloomsbury to Abbey Road, Via Coronation Street  |  | | |
| Course Description | The twentieth century saw extraordinary changes in the experience of Britons in all walks of life: an Empire was lost and a welfare state created; two world wars were fought; women got the vote and entered the workforce; immigration changed national tastes; cinema was invented, then television; there were new schools and universities; and cool Britannia was announced at least twice. This course will trace and reflect on these changes as they affected and were reflected in both traditional and popular art, with attention to music, literature and in particular, visual art. Topics will include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The World Wars and national memory; • Mid-Century moments: the Festival of Britain and the Coronation of 1953; • The Sixties: art school revolution; • The Eighties: the British are coming? The course will be highly visual, interactive and exploratory. | | | | |
| Start Date | 17th Jan 2022 | Day & Time | Monday 13:20 – 15:20 | Venue | Comberton Village College |
| Tutor Details | Dr Michael Clegg is a freelance art historian, writer and teacher. | Course aims & objectives | | | | | |
| The course aims to provide a broad introduction to the cultural history of Britain in the twentieth century. It will reflect on the idea of culture, on the relationship of popular and high art, and on connections between culture, technology, economics and social change. The course is centred around images and aims to develop skills in looking at, interpreting and enjoying art. | | | | | |

By the end of this course attendees will:

- be familiar with key events in British history in the twentieth century;
- be familiar with major movements in British art and literature;
- be able to appreciate the diversity of British culture as it developed in the twentieth century;
- be familiar with common histories and explanations of cultural change in twentieth century and able to take a critical view on these.

Equalities statement

We are fully committed to equality of opportunity and welcome enrolments from all adults aged 19+ (on 31 August 2021). We positively encourage all learners with any concerns about specific needs which might affect their learning to discuss their requirements with us in confidence. We believe that everyone is entitled to learn in an environment that is free from discriminatory behaviour so that we build a community based on mutual trust and respect. We will do our best to ensure that resources and equipment are accessible to all and make reasonable adjustments to ensure that all learners can access activities.

Cambridgeshire County Council, Adult Learning and Skills service supports a wide range of other adult learning opportunities across Cambridgeshire to support adults with the lowest level of qualifications or no qualification at all, and so typically find themselves in lower paid, less secure jobs or unemployed. Search our website www.cambsals.co.uk for details of all our funded courses.

Safeguarding Statement

Arrangements have been made to make sure that you are safe at our Centres. If you feel you are not safe for any reason, for example through verbal or physical abuse or you have been discriminated against, please tell your tutor or the Centre Manager, who will investigate to ensure your safety.
