Tutor Details	Miller and Ward is a small fine home fragrance business, based in Cambridge and Norfolk owned by cousins Julie Miller and Carole Matthews. It was started after one of our many discussions over the latest luxury candle we had purchased and the detrimental effect on our bank balance! We just couldn't let go of the idea that just maybe with a lot of hard work and enthusiasm we could produce an equally, if not better product. So...after attending various workshops and over a year of testing we were ready to launch in 2020 with a signature collection of luxury candles and diffusers as well as an aromatherapy range made with pure essential oils. All of our candles are hand-poured in small batches using only natural wax and high-quality fragrance and essential oils. Our products are vegan friendly and we use recyclable materials and packaging where possible. We now offer a series of workshops where people can make their own scented products and enjoy learning a little about the process behind the making of a good quality candle along the way!
