Course aims &amp; objectives
The course is aimed at anybody who enjoys Chinese food and wants to learn how to cook original, healthy and delicious Chinese food themselves. Learners will acquire the skills and knowledge to make some of the popular Guangdong style snacks. The course is designed to be suitable for everybody with all abilities and tastes.
Progression – after this course what might you do next?

Learners should acquire the confidence to experiment at home with Chinese cooking and create their own favourite flavours. Meiru also teaches weekly Chinese cookery classes at Melbourn Village College. Please check our website for details.

How progress & success will be recorded

At the end of the course, the learners and tutor will take photos of the dishes they cooked to keep as a record of progress. At the end of the day, the learners will be able to take their dishes home.

Additional course costs (e.g. visits, materials, books, equipment)

Ingredients required for the course will need to be purchased.
The college will email a list of ingredients to learners a week or two before the course. All the ingredients can be easily obtained from local stores or a Chinese supermarket.
Learners will also need to bring a basic steamer – details will be provided.

Materials/equipment required for first class

Please bring an apron, a couple of tea towels, a knife to slice/chop and containers to take your cooked dishes home.

Some small containers to put your prepared ingredients in during the class would be useful too.

Please bring refreshments for the day because there are no facilities available at the College.

Equalities statement

We are fully committed to equality of opportunity and welcome enrolments from all adults aged 19+ (on 31 August 2021). We positively encourage all learners with any concerns about specific needs which might affect their learning to discuss their requirements with us in confidence. We believe that everyone is entitled to learn in an environment that is free from discriminatory behaviour so that we build a community based on mutual trust and respect. We will do our best to ensure that resources and equipment are accessible to all and make reasonable adjustments to ensure that all learners can access activities.

Cambridgeshire County Council, Adult Learning and Skills service supports a wide range of other adult learning opportunities across Cambridgeshire to support adults with the lowest level of qualifications or no qualification at all, and so typically find themselves in lower paid, less secure jobs or unemployed. Search our website www.cambsals.co.uk for details of all our funded courses.

Safeguarding Statement

Arrangements have been made to make sure that you are safe at our Centres. If you feel you are not safe for any reason, for example through verbal or physical abuse or you have been discriminated against, please tell your tutor or the Centre Manager, who will investigate to ensure your safety.
